Did you know...

About one-third of online teens (ages 12-17) have been cyberbullied. Girls are more likely to be targeted.

Source: Lenhart A. Cyberbullying and Online Teens. Pew Internet & American Life Project, 2007.

Common Forms of Cyberbullying

FLAMING AND TROLLING—sending or posting hostile messages intended to “inflare” the emotions of others.

HAPPY-SLAPPING—recording someone being harassed or bullied in a way that usually involves physical abuse, then posting the video online for public viewing.

IDENTITY THEFT / IMPERSONATION – stealing someone’s password and/or hijacking their online accounts to send or post incriminating or humiliating pictures, videos, or information.

PHOTOSHOPPING – doctoring digital images so that the main subject is placed in a compromising or embarrassing situation.

PHYSICAL THREATS—sending messages that involve threats to a person’s physical safety.

RUMOR-SPREADING – spreading gossip through e-mail, text messaging, or social networking sites.

Signs Your Child May Be a Victim of Cyberbullying

Avoids the computer, cell phone, and other technological devices or appears stressed when receiving an e-mail, instant message, or text.

Withdraws from family and friends or acts reluctant to attend school and social events.

Avoids conversations about computer use.

Exhibits signs of low self-esteem including depression and/or fear.

Has declining grades.

Has poor eating or sleeping habits.
