

Autism Services of Saskatoon

Autism Services is an organization based in Saskatoon that is dedicated to supporting individuals and families caring for someone with an autism spectrum disorder. They offer numerous services including intervention programs, family programs, toddler programs, adult support, and mental health support. It can be challenging to know where to look for services for Autism; if you are searching for support, contact Autism Services for an agency intake.

For more information, check out the link below:

<https://www.autismservices.ca/access-services/intake-appt/>